Don't rely on newspaper obituaries. Get information from the family. If a line is left blank, please explain so we know it was intentional.

Survivors

Obituary listings are often used by family members doing genealogy research, so remember to include the women's maiden names and verify all information. Clearly print all surviving relatives in this order: spouse, sons, stepsons, daughters, stepdaughters, father (and stepmother), mother (and stepfather), grandparents, brothers, stepbrothers, half brothers, sisters, stepsisters, half sisters, number of grandchildren, number of step grandchildren and so on. We DO NOT publish any other relatives, such as spouses of family members, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, or friends, roommates and the like.
